Vendor Expectations & Requirements:

All products not described in the application or not approved during the application process shall be removed.

Each exhibitor is responsible for collecting the state Sales Tax and filing a report with the Department of Revenue. Where applicable, a tax ID number may be required.

An accepted application is a commitment by the exhibitor to display his/her work during ALL scheduled hours of the festival. DO NOT PACK UP EARLY! Exhibitors who break down early may be excluded from future events.

BOOTHS MAY NOT BE SHARED or split. Vendors are juried individually and accepted for the applications they submitted for approval.

Vendors must provide and be solely responsible for their own displays. These displays must be sturdy enough to withstand weather and crowds minimizing the potential for injury.

Vendors will confine their display to their assigned booth space (each space being 13'x13'). We have gone to considerable effort to allow for a maximum number of booths in an easy-to-follow configuration and allow for proper and safe aisle space. Expect to be asked to move if you are in any way outside your marked area.

The vendors' space must be occupied 30 minutes prior to opening each morning of the show or the exhibitor will be considered a no-show and his/her space may be reassigned and no refund will be given. Absolutely no vehicles will be allowed in the craft area once the festival has started.

Vendors must provide and be solely responsible for their own displays. These displays must be sturdy enough to withstand weather and crowds minimizing the potential for injury. Also, keep in mind the event takes place outside on a farm.

Setup and breakdown times will be strictly enforced. The breakdown will not begin until the end of the festival. Vehicles will not be permitted on the grounds until after the festival is complete.

NO REFUNDS/Exchanges will be given! The intention of the festival is to operate according to the dates and times advertised; however, rescheduling or cancellation is at the discretion of the event director (David Crooks). Any changes will be sent out in an email format to vendors/sponsors.

As a guest on the event grounds, all vendors are expected to clean up their area of all trash.

Vendors are encouraged to share NC Bacon Festival posts with positive comments. Do not create "events" on Facebook. We go to great lengths to maintain our social media accounts and communication with our guests and wish to be the source of all information to the public

As a guest on the festival grounds, all vendors are expected to treat festival staff, other vendors, and festival attendees with respect. Any inappropriate behaviors will result in being asked to leave the grounds immediately. Items may be collected after the festival is complete.

If you have any concerns or notice any issues please inform the festival Director: David Crooks (910)-233-8017. Do not confront others (vendors, guests, etc).

All rules must be followed! Please mail completed applications to:
